FLOOD AMENDMENT AIMED AT MAGOON

Committee Adopts Provision That No Officer Shall Receive More Than One Salary.

RADICAL CHANGES IN BILL

Bascom, Slemp and George L. Hart Make Statement Concerning Real Estate Deal.

(From uOr Regular Correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., May 8,-Representative Flood secured the adoption of entative Flood secured the adoption of an amendment to the diplomatic appropriation bill in the committee on foreign affairs to-day which not only calls attentier, to a piece of very loose and extravagant business in connection with our diplomatic service, and the conduct of stairs on the istimus of Panama, but corrects a manifest piece of injustice. The amendment simply provides that no part of the money appropriated by the dilocinatic bill shall be expended in the payment of the salary of any minister or ambassador who receives any other salary from the government.

Aimed at Magoon.

amendment is aimed at Governor on, who, in addition to being gov-of the Canal Zone, at an annual of $10,000, is a member of the Isti-mian Canal Commission at $7,00, and our minister to Panama at $19,000, muking his total compensation $27,000 annually. This was out of all proportion to the gravice rendered, and while the amendment, which will almost certainly be adopted by Congress, cuts his salary to $17,000, it is asserted by some that he still receiving more than his services crittle him to receive.

But Mr. Shonts, the president of the commission, receives $25,000 a year from the government and $12,000, it is said, from the Government and $12,000, it is said, from the Government and $12,000, it is said, from the Clover Leaft Railroad.

The diplomatic bill proposes some radical changes in the service, in so far as compensation is concerned. At present there are only five ambassadors of the United States receiving $17,500, the largest salary paid an ambassador. They are ambassadors at London, Paris, Berlin, St. Petersburg and City of Mexico. The bill on which the House committee on foreign affairs is working and which will be reported in a few days provides to raise the onbassy at Rio Janeiro, Rome, Vienna and Tokyo, to positions of the first class, with compensation fixed at $15,500 year.

With compensation fixed at $1,500 year.

What Mr. Slemp Says.

Mr. Bascom Slemp, son of Representative Slemp, and chairman of the Republican State Committee, has written me a letter, in which he denies absolutely that he acted in any way dishonorably in the recent real estate transaction in Roānoke, in which George L. Hart, whose name as postmaster of that city, was withdrawn by the President after it had been sent to the Senale. I noted in his correspondence remarks of several Democrats that it was strange that while the President should have withdrawn the name of Hart, he should have then appointed Mr. Funkhouser on the recommendation of Mr. Slemp, who was the grantee in the first deed in the realty ransaction complained of, and the grantor in the second. Mr. Slemp says:

"There was no agreement or understanding, directly or indirectly, whereby I personally, or as chairman of the party, or any official of the party, or any official of the party, or any opeics should thave received from Mr. Hartany portion of the emoluments of the office in consideration of my endorsement of him or for any other cause. Nor was there any connection, direct or indirect, express or implied, between the real estate deal above referred to and my endorsement of Mr. Hart."

Mr. Slemp appends a statement from Mr. Hart, which accords with the facts as set forth by Mr. Slemp. Mr. Hart's statement, addressed to Mr. Slemp, is as follows: What Mr. Slemp Says.

"It seems to be a foregone conclusion," said Mr. Davis, at the Capitol to-day, "that Judge E. W. Saunders will be the Democratic candidate, as the party appears to be overwhelmingly for him. But the Republican choice does not seem to have centered on anybody. I am not a candidate and I do not expect the nomination to come to me. Price Paid for Powder.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, May 8.—The House of Representatives devoted the day to the naval appropriation bill, and accomplished the reading for amendment of the first fifteen pages. During this time several topics incident to the measure were discussed, including the difficulty of obtaining enlisted men in the navy, the location of the naval training station on the Great Lakes, the cost of smokeless powder, and finally the unnecessary expenditure of $100,000 a year for chains for ships. This last matter was under for ships. This last matter was under consideration when the House adjourned. Representative Loud, of Michigan, and Grosvenor, of Ohio, offered amendments providing that the purchase of such supplies as chains, anchors, cordage, etc., shall hereafter be by the competitive process. Representative Rixey, of Virginia, was unsuccessful in getting an amendment through, limiting to sixty cents a pound the amount which may be expended for smokeless powder. He stated that ed for smokeless powder. He stated that the price now paid was seventy-five cents a pound, but that the inquiry made by the Naval Committee showed that it actually cost but thirty-five cents to manufacture the powder.

The army appropriation bill was sent amendments disagreed to. A bill was passed allowing the bridging of the Missouri River at Kansas City.

These are many. The association, as a the bankrupt law, making the traveling

The association is also advocating restricted immigration, good rouds and one

There are several other matters now before Congress in which the travelers are interested, but their interest is confered mainly on the rate bill and the amendment to the bankruptcy law. Colonel

This Argument Made By Jerome and Untermeyer in Perkins

CASE NOW WITH THE COURT

Absolutely No Proof of Fellonious Intent, Counsel for Defendant Declares.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW YORK, May 8.—Argument was begun to-day in the case of George W. Perkins in the appellate division of the Supreme Court. Mr. Perkins was formerly vice-president of the New York Life Insurance Company. He was taken before the court in March on a charge brought to test the question whether the making of political contributions from insurance company funds constitutes a crine. The case now comes before the appellate division on an appeal from a ruling by Justice Greenbaum that such contributions constitute larteny.

Judge Cohen, of counsel for Perkins, contended that there is not sufficient legal evidence to justify the magistrate in assuming jurisdiction in this case, and that the property taken was constituted for the boxed.

in assuming jurisdiction in this case, and that the property taken was contributed for the benefit of its true owners. Judge Cohen said that if the court held that in campaign contributions the property was not taken for the benefit of its true owners, then the proper course of action would be a civil suit to recover it.

What Jerome Says. District Attorney Jerome made an ar-

"Such an expenditure as this contribution," he said, "If brought to the attention of the courts, would no doubt have

of an apposite political party; to take the money of persons whose families will have to rely upon it for support to advance the interests of a party to which they are opposed, is contrary to the whole fundamental ethical concepts of this community. I think that such a course must be opposed by any right-minded man."

deal of discretion resides in the courts.
I maintain that it is sufficient to prove that there was a moral evil to prove that there was longous intent."

Further arguments against Mr. Per kins's appeal was made by Mr. Unter mover who said that Mr. Perkins, being meyer, who said that Mr. Perkins, beiny vice-president of the company and chairman of the Finance Committee, was just as responsible for the disbursement of money as the president himself. Several times during his argument, Mr. Untermeyer was interrupted by quositions from Justice Ingraham. Once the justice asked:

"It makes the taking of money a crime. It makes the appropriation of property by others than the owners a crime," was the reply.

At another time Justice" Ingraiam asked whether any one who should get money from a corporation to which he was not entitled committed a crime. Mr. Untermeyer said:

"If the person who receives money wrongfully from a corporation stands in the relation of a trustee to that corporation and to those interested in its assets, then, if there be criminal intent, is a crime."
